Marcy Tench Stovall practices in the area of civil litigation in both federal and state courts. Her work includes commercial litigation, appellate practice law, employment law and professional liability. In professional responsibility matters, Marcy routinely represents attorneys in malpractice litigation and licensing and disciplinary proceedings, including appeals; she has written published articles on these subjects.

Marcy co-authored "Attorney Advertising in Connecticut: Everything You Need to Know about the New Era of Oversight and Regulation," (Connecticut Lawyer); "Conflict Waivers: When in Doubt, Spell It Out," (Connecticut Lawyer); "Responding To a Disciplinary Complaint: The Do's and Don'ts" (Connecticut Law Tribune), and "Advancing Client Costs: Pitfalls and Changes in Rule 1.8(e)," (Connecticut Law Tribune). She has been a presenter at seminars on attorney ethics, professional responsibility and the Connecticut Rules of Professional Conduct.
