

A&WMA New England Section Connecticut Chapter

March 21, 2012 Meeting ANNOUNCEMENT:

Lee D. Hoffman to speak on -"Lessons Learned from the Two Storm Panel: Limiting Future Natural Disasters"

Please join the Connecticut Chapter and the New England Section of the Air and Waste Management Association (AWMA) for dinner and an informative evening discussion on a topic of importance and currency. Lee Hoffman served as a member of the Two Storm Panel charged by Governor Dannel P. Malloy to "review the preparedness, response and recovery efforts of Tropical Storm Irene and the October Nor'easter". He has served on many forums- many in leadership roles- including the Governor's Energy Policy Working Group, the Connecticut General Assembly's Task Force on Brownfield Strategies, CBIA's Environmental Policies Council and the Environmental and Public Utilities Sections of the Connecticut Bar Association. Lee Hoffman is a director of the New England Section AWMA, as well as Chair of the Environmental Policy Division of the Technical Coordinating Council of International AWMA. Lee is a graduate of Tulane University and the George Washington University Law School and was recently recognized as one of the "Dozen Who Made a Difference" for 2011 by the Connecticut Law Tribune.
