PULLMAN & COMLEY ACHIEVES 100% PARTICIPATION IN UNITED ARTS CAMPAIGN

HARTFORD, CT, August 5, 2009 – The law firm of Pullman & Comley LLC has been recognized by the Greater Hartford Arts Council for hosting a record-breaking Workplace Campaign for the Arts in their Hartford office this spring, achieving 100 percent participation among their employees. The firm has been a proud supporter of the arts in Greater Hartford for many years.

“The arts are such an important part of the economy in Greater Hartford, and they bring joy to everyone,” said Morris W. Banks, member of the firm and treasurer of the Greater Hartford Arts Council. “We are so proud of our folks for this astonishing achievement.” Mr. Banks credited staff members Marilyn Furlong, Virg Laureano and Jenny Pawlus, who coordinated the employee campaign, for pulling it all together.

The three collaborated with another local law firm, Hinckley, Allen & Snyder, to create a friendly, baseball-themed competition. Both firms achieved significant campaign growth as a result. Opening Day featured a "pitch" from Arts Council staff, followed by a lunch of hot dogs, baked beans, peanuts and CrackerJacks. Employees were treated to a recitation of “Casey at the Bat” by Thomas Beebe of the Hartford Children’s Theater, one of the 150 arts and heritage organizations that benefit from the United Arts Campaign.

Pullman & Comley, LLC provides a wide range of legal services to clients in the New England region, as well as throughout the United States and internationally. The firm’s major practice areas include business enterprises, health care, litigation, public and commercial finance, property valuation, real estate and environmental, and trusts and estates. In addition to Hartford, the firm has offices in Bridgeport, Stamford and White Plains. For more information, please visit www.pullcom.com.
