BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 24, 2011: The Women's Leadership Initiative at Pullman & Comley hosted its 14th Annual Networking Tea on Thursday, May 12 at Meadowlands in Darien, Connecticut.

The event, which brings together business women and community leaders from Fairfield County and throughout Connecticut, included as its featured guest the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women.

The American Heart Association created “Go Red For Women” to raise awareness of heart disease as the leading health threat for women. Go Red For Women is an emotional, social initiative designed to empower women to take charge of their heart health, celebrating the energy, passion and power of women to band together to wipe out heart disease and stroke. For more information, visit www.goredforwomen.org.

Local businesses contributing to the event included Charles R. Case of The Flower Basket in Westport; Visible Changes salon in Greenwich; custom clothier Tara Costanzo; and Elements Yoga and Health Center in Darien.

The Women’s Leadership Initiative at Pullman & Comley is committed to advancing women’s careers through providing seminars, networking events and awareness-raising programs for women in the firm’s local communities. Pullman & Comley, LLC, provides a wide range of legal services. The firm’s major practice areas include corporate and business, environmental, health care, litigation, public law and finance, real estate, property valuation, and trusts and estates.
