

Management Team

Pullman & Comley is managed by an Executive Committee consisting of the Chairman, two other elected Members and the firm's Executive Director.

The firm's Practice Management Committee is responsible for attorney and practice development. It consists of the firm's Department chairs and other Members designated by the Executive Committee.