Glenn G. Rybacki represents a variety of issuers of tax-exempt and taxable bonds as bond counsel and regularly represents underwriters, lenders, borrowers and trustees in all manners of debt transactions. He has served as bond counsel on general obligation bonds and notes, revenue bonds, refunding bonds, tax credit bonds, pension obligation bonds, clean water fund financings, and conduit borrowings. While Glenn provides counsel on all aspects of debt issuance, he focuses much of his practice on the federal tax aspects of tax-exempt, tax credit and other tax benefit bonds. He has prepared and advised on post-issuance tax compliance procedures for municipalities, state agencies and conduit borrowers, and regularly conducts compliance training seminars for municipal issuers and conduit borrowers. Glenn combines his experience as bond counsel with his experience as a state tax auditor to effectively and efficiently represent municipalities, conduit borrowers and other issuers before the Internal Revenue Service.

In addition to his public finance practice, Glenn has provided state and local tax advice and representation to a variety of clients, ranging from Fortune 500 corporations to startups. Before entering private practice, Glenn was a tax manager in the multistate practice group at Deloitte & Touche and a revenue examiner for the State of Connecticut Department of Revenue Services.
