Mr. Orleans is Co-chair of the firm's Colleges, Universities and Independent Schools practice, and also leads the Private Sector Labor and Employment section within the Labor, Employment, Employee Benefits, and School Law Department. He has more than 30 years of experience as a litigator and counselor in a broad range of employment, commercial, and civil rights matters. Since 2009, he has focused a significant part of his practice on Title IX matters, including the investigation of sexual misconduct and sexual harassment complaints, the development of institutional policies, and Title IX compliance in university athletics programs. Mr. Orleans has litigated numerous cases arising under Title IX, Title VII, the Connecticut Fair Employment Practices Act, and other antidiscrimination laws, and has represented individuals, businesses, and institutions in hundreds of investigations of discrimination and harassment allegations. He offers anti-harassment training to business clients, and he has been a regular speaker to the Connecticut Conference of Independent Colleges on a variety of topics related to Title IX and employment law. Mr. Orleans is recognized by Chambers USA, a leading lawyer-ranking publication, for his labor and employment law experience, based on strong recommendations from the marketplace. Mr. Orleans was named by The Best Lawyers in America as the Employment Law – Management “Lawyer of the Year” in the Stamford, CT region in 2015, 2017, and 2019.

Mr. Orleans recently completed a two-year term as Co-chair of the Connecticut Bar Association's Federal Practice Section. He currently chairs the Local Civil Rules Advisory Committee of the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut. He previously served on the Grievance Committee of the District Court, and on the Connecticut Judicial Branch Civil Commission.
