Livia DeFilippis Barndollar has more than 35 years of experience ably representing parties in dissolution of marriage cases, post judgment and appellate proceedings and marital and premarital agreements. She also less frequently represents children in the divorce process as a guardian ad litem or attorney for the minor child. At times, she is asked to mediate marital disputes directly with the parties or on behalf of other family law counsel. She is a member of the firm in Pullman & Comley's Family Law Practice and co-chair of its Appellate Practice Group.

Livia is known among her peers and her clients as being reasonable, experienced and focused while being capable and willing to push up her sleeves to obtain results. Not all cases involve two reasonable clients and reasonable opposing counsel, so Livia gauges when negotiating needs to yield to preparation for alternative dispute resolution or trial.

Livia dedicates herself to keeping up on the law, as well as teaching others in the profession and aligned professions. She approaches her cases with knowledge of the law and the judicial system as an omnipresent backdrop.

Livia is a past president of the Connecticut Bar Association (CBA) and a past chair of its Family Law Section. She has been a member of the Executive Committee of the CBA Family Law Section since 1996 and has served as every officer of the Section. Livia just finished a three year term in the CBA House as the representative of the Family Law Section. Livia is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Connecticut Bar Foundation, served the maximum nine years on its board, and has served as the chair of its board of directors, Nominating Committee and Fellows Nomination Committee. She also serves as a board member of Connecticut Legal Services and on the Standing Committee on Professional Ethics of the CBA.

Livia is also involved in national bar association activities and in the summer of 2019, completed her fourth term as a State delegate to the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association. She is a member of the American Counsel Association, its past president, and serves on its board of directors. She has been a member of the American Bar Association's Family Law Section Council and has served as its parliamentarian.
