

Non-Attorney Professionals

The quality of the administrative and legal support staff at Pullman & Comley plays a vital role in the high level of service we provide our clients. We employ individuals in a variety of areas, including accounting, computer information services, marketing and office services, as well as paralegals and legal secretaries.

We believe that a workforce that reflects our society's diversity enriches us with multiple perspectives and experiences. For more on our commitment to diversity, visit our Diversity and Inclusion page.
