

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act – What it Means for You

April 4, 2018

The attorneys of Pullman & Comley's Tax Practice provided an overview of the changes made by the Act and then discussed in more detail the following significant changes both at the personal level and the business level:

- General Provisions Affecting Individuals
- Loss of Various Deductions
- New Rules for Pass-Through Entities
- Executive Compensation and Retirement Plan Issues
- Effect on Business
- Effect on Investors
- Estate Planning Changes

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

Pullman & Comley — Hartford Boardroom
90 State House Square
Hartford, CT

7:30 a.m. — Registration and Networking
8:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. - Breakfast and Discussion

Professionals

Morris W. Banks
Andrew C. Glassman
Nancy A. D. Hancock
George J. Kasper
D. Robert Morris
Kelly F. O'Donnell

pullcom.com  @pullmancomley

BRIDGEPORT | HARTFORD | SPRINGFIELD | STAMFORD | WATERBURY | WESTPORT | WHITE PLAINS
203.330.2000 | 860.424.4300 | 413.314.6160 | 203.324.5000 | 203.573.9700 | 203.254.5000 | 914.705.5355

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act – What it Means for You

Practice Areas

Business and Finance

Tax