

2014 CABE/CAPSS Convention

November 14, 2014

Pullman & Comley School Law attorneys Michael McKeon, Zach Schurin and Mark Sommaruga were invited to speak at the annual Connecticut Association of Boards of Education (CABE) and Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents (CAPSS) convention, the theme of which is: "Public Education in 2027: Courageous Leadership Teams." In the Section B Workshop, Mark -- the author of Understanding the Connecticut Freedom of Information Act -- discussed the Act, particularly issues pertaining to public meetings and public records. In the Section D Workshop, Mike reviewed the legal contours of school board member speech. Finally, in the Session E Workshop, Mark and Zach teamed up and spoke about magnet and charter schools and the effect of alternative educational providers.
