

Attorney Rachel Ginsburg Presented at National Employment Practices Liability Insurance ExecuSummit

April 12, 2016

Pullman & Comley attorney Rachel L. Ginsburg, an attorney in the Labor, Employment Law and Employee Benefits and Litigation departments, was a featured presenter at the Second Annual National Employment Practices Liability Insurance (EPLI) ExecuSummit on April 12, 2016. Rachel was a co-panelist discussing Federal Leave and Disability laws in a session titled, "Where FMLA Expires and ADA Protections Begin: Employers Continuing Obligations to Accommodate."

The EPLI ExecuSummit is an educational conference specifically designed for EPL insurance professionals. The summit is a unique opportunity for industry professionals to obtain the information needed to succeed in this rapidly changing environment.

April 12 &13, 2016
Dana Hotel & Spa
Chicago, IL

For more information on conference, please click here.

Practice Areas

Labor, Employment Law & Employee Benefits
Litigation