

CBIA's 2014 Compensation & Benefits Conference

November 4, 2014

Pullman & Comley's Employee Benefits attorneys Sharon Freilich, George Kasper and chair of the Employee Benefits practice, Nancy Lapera, spoke at the 2014 Compensation & Benefits Conference of the Connecticut Business & Industry Association (CBIA). Sharon and George led the plenary session titled, "The Affordable Care Act from Strategic, Legal and Operational Perspectives." George was also part of a concurrent breakout session regarding "Wellness, Social Media and the Law."

Nancy hosted the concurrent breakout session, "IRS/DOL Audit Trends: How to (Not) Get on the Wrong Side of Your CFO" where she discussed the rise in government audit activity, how to maintain compliant benefit plans, correct errors and avoid substantial penalties.

For more information, please click here.

Professionals

Sharon Kowal Freilich

George J. Kasper

Practice Areas

Employee Benefits