

Government 101: A Comprehensive Review of How Connecticut Government Works

February 16, 2018

John F. Stafstrom, chair of Pullman & Comley's Government Finance practice, and Steven J. Stafstrom, Connecticut State Representative for the 129th Assembly District and an attorney in Pullman's Litigation practice, spoke at this event hosted by the Bridgeport Regional Business Council. John and Steve were part of a panel of experts including lobbyists and legislators who all shared personal experiences and explained the important and not-entirely-understood process of how the government works.
