

2014 CBA Federal Tax Institute

October 24, 2014

Pullman & Comley Tax attorney Morris Banks spoke at the 2014 Federal Tax Institute of New England seminar of the Connecticut Bar Association. Moe discussed tax issues confronting both buyers and sellers of businesses in taxable and non-recognition transactions, tax traps for business lawyers and the structuring of a typical acquisition by a private equity group in those cases where the owners of the target company desire to retain a continuing interest. The attendees learned how to avoid acceleration of taxable income after an installment sale, avoiding the "Anti-Morris Trust" rule and allocation of personal good will.
