

SEMINAR: A Primer for Attorneys Serving on Nonprofit Boards

November 7, 2011

This seminar was designed for attorneys who practice nonprofit law, as well as for attorneys who currently hold or are considering holding a position at a nonprofit organization. Pullman & Comley Professional Liability attorney David P. Atkins was one of the panelists for this program. He addressed the ethical implications and the scope of the attorney-client privilege when an attorney serves as a board member of an entity represented by the attorney's law firm.
