

SEMINAR: Attorney Campbell Barrett to Discuss Family Law Practices at National Business Institute Seminar

March 3, 2016

Attorney Campbell D. Barrett, chair of the firm's Family Law practice, will be a featured presenter at the National Business Institute's "Family Law from A to Z" seminar on March 3, 2016. This training seminar is focused on helping attorneys develop the necessary skills to successfully practice family law. Additionally, the seminar will discuss recent legal updates, best practices and procedural tips.

Campbell will be specifically speaking on the topics of "Marriage Dissolution: Process and Procedure" and "Child Custody and Visitation Rights." The seminar is open to both attorneys and paralegals, and International Association for Continuing Education and Training credit will be offered.
