

Environmental Due Diligence for Transactions

May 30, 2019

Attorney Christopher McCormack, a member of Pullman & Comley's Environmental practice presented at the luncheon program Environmental Due Diligence For Transactions Involving Real Property: A Survival Guide For The Transactional Lawyer hosted by the Fairfield County Bar Association.

Date

Thursday, May 30 2019
12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Fairfield County Bar Association
970 Summer Street
Stamford, CT 06905

Transactions involving real property regularly present environmental challenges. This program helped real estate and corporate attorneys understand environmental liability risks, use of site assessment tools to evaluate property-specific issues, and remedial options available under Connecticut law to achieve compliance efficiently. Topics included:

- The nature of the problem: liability and remediation risk, defenses, and safe harbors
- Conquering the unknown: assessing property conditions and scoping remedial options
- Making the deal work anyway: transactional treatment of environmental issues
- Practical applications for purchasers and sellers
