

Complying with the CT Rules of Professional Conduct: Avoiding Discipline and Malpractice

October 11, 2017

CBA Law Center - 30 Bank Street, New Britain, CT

Attorney Marcy T. Stovall of Pullman & Comley's Litigation practice, will take part in a CLE program entitled "Complying with the CT Rules of Professional Conduct: Avoiding Discipline and Malpractice."

The program will offer guidance on meeting professional obligations to clients and the public, including:

- Lawyers' ethical responsibilities in communications, and in interactions with opposing counsel
- Ethical considerations at the beginning of an attorney-client relationship, including engagement agreements, conflict issues and representing clients with impaired capacity
- How to comply with IOLTA rules and about random audits

This seminar will be of value to any attorney that currently practices, or is planning to practice, in Connecticut.

For more information or to register for the program, visit the Connecticut Bar Association's website here.

Professionals

Marcy Tench Stovall

Practice Areas

Litigation

Professional Liability