

SEMINAR: Ethics: Past, Present, and Future

June 11, 2012

The Connecticut Bar Association will be hosting its Annual Meeting, at which Pullman & Comley litigation attorney Marcy Tench Stovall will be a speaker at a program sponsored by the CBA's Committee on Professional Ethics entitled "Ethics: Past, Present and Future." The program will address the frequently asked questions and problem areas for practitioners; review the most recent opinions and rules changes and briefly discuss how the Committee's CBA Web page will make it easier to find and request opinions; and review the 20/20 proposals.

Monday, June 11, 2012
2:00 pm - 3:30 pm
Connecticut Convention Center
100 Columbus Blvd.
