

SEMINAR: Judge Lynda B. Munro (Ret.) Presents at the Connecticut Bar Association's Professionalism Symposium

Judge Lynda B. Munro (Ret.), member of Pullman & Comley's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) practice, was a featured panelist at the Connecticut Bar Association's 2015 Professionalism Seminar on November 6, 2015. The seminar, geared towards newly admitted attorneys, focused on best practices in professionalism and ethical considerations. Judge Munro held a session exploring "How Much Should the Court Support Self-Represented Parties?" The seminar was held at the New Haven Superior Court and was presented in conjunction with the New Haven County Bar Association.

Professionals

Lynda B. Munro

Practice Areas

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Family Law

Litigation