

SEMINAR: Judge Robert L. Holzberg (Ret.) Will Present on CLE Mediation Panel for CTLA

November 4, 2016

Member attorney Robert L. Holzberg, Connecticut Superior Court Judge (Ret.) and head of Pullman & Comley's Alternative Dispute Resolution practice, will be a speaker at the seminar, "Strategies for a Successful Mediation."

Co-sponsored by Quinnipiac University Law School and the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association, this seminar is eligible for CLE credit and will be presented in both panel discussion and break out session form. Participants will explore topics such as key principles of negotiation, understanding what a mediator is trying to accomplish, ways to bargain, how to prepare the client for the mediation role, techniques for using the caucus, and more.

Friday, November 4, 2016

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Quinnipiac University School of Law

370 Bassett Road

North Haven, CT 06473

NOTE: There is a fee to attend this seminar.

For more information, or to register, please click here.

Practice Areas

Alternative Dispute Resolution