

Navigating the FMLA, ADA, and Workers Compensation Maze

June 19, 2018

Attorney Robert Hinton of Pullman & Comley's Labor and Employment practice addressed employee rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, and the Worker's Compensation Act. Navigating the triangle between these three laws can be treacherous, and a municipality's obligations can at times be difficult to discern. Attendees learned how intersecting ADA, FMLA and Worker's Compensation laws and regulations impact a municipality's policies and procedures, and what municipalities must do to adapt, comply and avoid legal exposure.
