

IN THE NEWS: Chris McCormack Moderates Panel For American Manufacturing Hall Of Fame

July 15, 2014

Pullman & Comley Environmental and Litigation attorney Christopher McCormack, President of the Housatonic Community College Foundation, was master of ceremonies and moderator for the launch of the Foundation's American Manufacturing Hall of Fame on July 15, 2014. The Hall of Fame will recognize historically important manufacturers in and beyond the Bridgeport region as well as promote awareness of the College's Advanced Manufacturing Center. Chris announced the inaugural inductees and led panel discussions with area manufacturers and manufacturing advocate and actor John Ratzenberger.
