

Erick A. Russell and Two Pullman Alumni Appointed to State's Criminal Justice Commission

June 29, 2017
Hartford Courant

Pullman & Comley attorney Erick A. Russell, an associate in the Government Finance and Litigation practice areas, has been appointed by Governor Dannel P. Malloy to the state's Criminal Justice Commission, the agency that hires state prosecutors. Erick will join newly appointed Pullman & Comley alumni attorneys, Eric George and Supreme Court Justice Andrew J. McDonald, who will serve as the commission's chairman.

To read the article, please click here.

Professionals

Erick A. Russell

Practice Areas

Litigation

Public Finance

Public/Private Development Financing