Pullman & Comley Public Finance attorney John Stafstrom was named as the 2013 Barnum Festival Ringmaster by the Barnum Festival Foundation board of directors on September 6th. The annual celebration was created in 1948 to commemorate the life and achievements of P.T. Barnum, world famous entrepreneur and former mayor of Bridgeport.

According to the Festival president Ken Maloney, "Both in his work as an attorney, and in his involvement in the community, John has demonstrated an outstanding commitment to Bridgeport and the local region. We know he will bring a real energy and vitality to the ringmaster role as we celebrate the Barnum Festival's 65th year."
