

Jon Orleans Comments On Court Title IX Decision

August 7, 2012

ESPN.com

In "Court Upholds Cheerleading Decision" Pullman & Comley Litigation attorney Jonathan Orleans was quoted concerning the recent Second Circuit Court of Appeals decision confirming that colleges may not count competitive cheerleading as a sport toward compliance with gender equity requirements under Title IX.

According to Jon, "This year marks the 40th anniversary of Title IX, and it's fitting that this decision underscores its importance. This is a great victory for Quinnipiac's female student athletes and for women's collegiate sports."
