

Norwich Diocese Investigation Seeks Input From Survivors Of Clergy Sexual Abuse

November 10, 2020

HARTFORD, CT, November 10, 2020: Retired Connecticut Superior Court Judge Michael E. Riley, a member of the Investigations practice at Pullman & Comley, is leading a Clerical Sexual Abuse Accountability Investigation for the Diocese of Norwich.

The investigation has established a toll free call line for any person who wishes to provide information related to past incidents of abuse or their experience with the Diocese in regards to such abuse.

Anyone who has information that can assist Judge Riley and his team in this investigation can make a report by calling toll-free: 844-311-2111 (English); 800-216-1288 (Spanish), or by visiting: www.lighthouse-services.com/norwichdiocese. The hotlines and website are operated by Lighthouse, a provider of secure, confidential third-party hotlines for organizations conducting investigations. All communications with Judge Riley and his team will be confidential.

A link to a press release about the investigation can be found here on the Diocese of Norwich website .

Professionals

Robert L. Holzberg
Michael E. Riley

Practice Areas

Investigations