January 29, 2018

BRIDGEPORT, Connecticut: Pullman & Comley is pleased to announce the addition of Livia DeFilippis Barndollar and Kelly A. Scott to the firm's Family Law Practice. Both attorneys are located in Fairfield County, with Ms. Barndollar based in Westport and Ms. Scott based in Bridgeport.

"We are very pleased that Livia and Kelly have joined our expanding Family Law practice," said Timothy Ronan, chairman of the firm's Litigation Department. "Both attorneys bring with them an abundance of experience and will be a tremendous asset in serving our clients in Lower Fairfield County."

Livia D. Barndollar, a member of the firm, focuses her family law practice on litigation matters involving dissolution of marriage cases and in post judgment and appellate proceedings. She also resolves matters by informed and experienced negotiation. For years, Ms. Barndollar has been actively involved in the legal community, having served as president of the Connecticut Bar Association (CBA) and chair of its Family Law Section, and serves as officer on numerous other CBA committees.

A recognized leader in the legal profession, Ms. Barndollar has earned numerous professional awards for her accomplishments. She is a board member of the Connecticut Legal Services and the Connecticut Bar Foundation, and also has been named a Fellow of both the Connecticut Bar Foundation and the American Bar Foundation. Since 2006, she has been a delegate to the ABA House of Delegates.

Ms. Barndollar takes an active role in several family law publications and has served as the senior topical editor for family law of the Connecticut Bar Journal since 2000. She has served as an editor of the Bar Journal since 1985, and was editor in chief of the journal from 1994-1997. She also serves as an editor at large of The Family Advocate, published by the American Bar Association's Section of Family Law.

An engaging speaker, Ms. Barndollar frequently presents on topics other than family law, and has delivered speeches for new admittees' induction ceremonies. She has also conducted several addresses at the request of the Connecticut Supreme Court. She earned her B.A. from Trinity College and her J. D. from Villanova University School of Law.
