

Attorneys McKeon and Schurin Address Connecticut Association of Independent Schools on Transgender Student Issues

Education Law Notes

10.23.2015

By Zachary Schurin

On October 19, 2015, Pullman & Comley School Law attorneys Michael P. McKeon and Zachary D. Schurin gave a presentation entitled “Transforming Equity: The Law and Transgender Students” to members of the Connecticut Association of Independent Schools [“CAIS”]. The presentation covered an array of topics including relevant statutes and new case law, bathroom and locker room use, student records, dormitory assignments and gender fluid students.

If your organization is interested in learning more about legal considerations to be aware of with transgender students please contact Attorney McKeon or Attorney Schurin.

Posted in Diversity, Privacy, Special Education