

Permanent Changes to the FOIA Regarding Remote and Hybrid Meetings

---

Working Together

07.05.2022

By Mark Sommaruga

This spring, Governor Lamont signed Public Act 22-3, which makes permanent changes to Connecticut's Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) to preserve the ability of public agencies (including school boards) to conduct remote and hybrid meetings. The Act largely mirrors the temporary provisions which were implemented during the pandemic.

To learn more, please read our full blog post on this topic, "Permanent Changes to the FOIA Regarding Remote and Hybrid Meetings," written for Education Law Notes.

Posted in The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)

Tags: Hybrid Meetings, Remote Meetings