

SEMINAR: New Developments in Labor & Employment Law - Hartford

---

Working Together

10.16.2013

By Joshua Hawks-Ladds

Pullman & Comley is pleased to announce that it is once again holding its annual, comprehensive labor and employment and employee benefits seminar on October 30 at The Hartford Club. Connecticut Department of Labor Deputy Commissioner Dennis Murphy will be speaking at noon at The Hartford Club event. Topics this year will include the status of medical marijuana legislation and how it impacts employers, concerns for employers and an update on new court decisions and legislation affecting employers and many other topics. If you are interested in attending one of the seminars, please send an e-mail request to info@pullcom.com. To view the agenda, please click here.