

Attorney Careers

With more than 100 years of providing exceptional service to our clients, Pullman & Comley has gained a reputation as a leading provider of legal services, consistently recognized by top-tier legal directories and publications including Chambers USA and U.S. News – Best Lawyers® Best Law Firms. Our growing firm provides a challenging and rewarding work environment of collaboration across practice areas and business functions, based upon a strong culture of collegiality and respect for both professional and personal goals.

Pullman & Comley's inclusive culture is central to who we are as a firm. We believe that a workforce that reflects our society's diversity enriches us with multiple perspectives and experiences, enhancing both our strategies for our clients and our contributions to the legal profession and the greater community. For more on our commitment to diversity, visit our Diversity & Inclusion page.

New Associates

First year associates, many of whom have participated in our Summer Associate 1L or 2L program, join a collaborative, challenging and engaging environment where they receive mentorship and professional guidance on an individual level as well as a full curriculum of professional development programs. Associates are closely supervised and carefully reviewed during their first few years, with the goal of ensuring long-term professional success.

Lateral Hires - Members and Associates

Whether you are an associate or partner in private practice, in-house counsel or a retired judge, we are always interested in adding outstanding talent to our team, and we hire accomplished attorneys at every level of experience. Over the years, our strategic hiring of talented laterals and efforts to ensure their success at Pullman have been a core part of our strong growth and ongoing ability to meet our clients' needs.

Pullman & Comley provides all new attorneys with training, mentoring and professional support to get off to a strong start at Pullman, and we have many formal and informal programs in place that provide opportunities to become fully integrated with our team and build your practice.

If you are a lateral member or associate candidate and are interested in learning more about a career at Pullman & Comley, please contact:
