

Attorney David P. Atkins to Speak at National Legal Malpractice Conference

September 22, 2016

Pullman & Comley attorney David P. Atkins, member of the Litigation Department and Chair of the Professional Liability Section, was a presenter at the American Bar Association's 2016 Fall National Legal Malpractice Conference on September 22, 2016.

Attorney Atkins presented as a panelist for a program entitled, "Understanding the Principles of Contributory and Comparative Negligence in Legal Malpractice Actions." During the presentation, the panel discussed limiting or possibly precluding a law firm's exposure either where the plaintiff was the cause of his or her own claimed injury, or where the fault can be attributed to others.

Professionals

David P. Atkins

Practice Areas

Professional Liability