Event Sponsor: Connecticut Bar Association - Women in the Law and Family Law Sections

Campbell D. Barrett, chair of Pullman & Comley's Family Law practice, spoke at a March 29, 2022 Connecticut Bar Association event on the recently enacted "Jennifer's Law," a Connecticut state aimed at affording greater protections to victims of domestic violence.

For this CLE event, Campbell joined a Superior Court judge along with clinical and nonprofit experts in the field to discuss the history of the legislation, the impact on affected victims and families, and how the new legislation can be expected to influence practice and judging in Connecticut.
