

Melinda Kaufmann and Gwaina Wauldon to Present on Title IX at the 2022 CCIC Member Forum

November 21, 2022 | 10:00 a.m. - 10:50 a.m.

Event Sponsor: The Connecticut Conference of Independent Colleges

Colleges, Universities and Independent Schools attorneys Melinda B. Kaufmann and Gwaina D. Wauldon will present a session at the 2022 Connecticut Conference of Independent Colleges (CCIC) member forum titled "Title IX Lessons from the Trenches: Where are Mistakes Still Being Made and How Can They be Fixed?"

Melinda and Gwaina will discuss some of the challenges presented throughout the Title IX grievance process and what can be done to provide an appropriate institutional response in this virtual workshop.

CCIC's Annual Forum provides members with an opportunity to gain information and discuss solutions with industry experts and colleagues from other institutions about the latest trends on campuses. For additional information, please visit the CCIC website.

Professionals

Melinda B. Kaufmann

Practice Areas

Colleges, Universities and Independent Schools

Industries

Educational Institutions