

Michael Andreana, Speaker on Opportunity Zones at Groton Event

March 27, 2020

Groton Inn and Suites

Event Sponsor: Town of Groton

Attorney Michael J. Andreana, co-chair of Pullman & Comley's Government Finance practice and a member of the firm's Opportunity Zones team, spoke at an event hosted by Groton highlighting the benefits and investment opportunities within its Opportunity Zone. This information is critical for anyone interested in projects through this federal incentive program.

Mike discussed the requirements, benefits, and legal implications of engaging in an Opportunity Zone project. He was joined on the panel by Courtney Hendricson, Vice President of Partnerships, AdvanceCT, who discussed efforts to engage and promote stakeholders around Opportunity Zones statewide and how you can get involved; Paige Bronk, Economic & Community Development Manager, Town of Groton, who covered the characteristics of Groton's Opportunity Zone, real estate and other investment opportunities within the zone, and additional incentives from the Town; and Al Puchala, CEO, CapZone Impact Investments, an investor in Opportunity Zone projects.
