

International Study Abroad, Recruitment and Travel in Higher Education

April 5, 2018

Attorney Jonathan B. Orleans, a member of Pullman & Comley's Colleges and Universities practice, participated in a Lunch and Learn co-hosted by the Connecticut Conference of Independent Colleges and People's United Insurance Agency that explored the topic of International Study Abroad, Recruitment and Travel.

Jon provided an overview of the legal landscape, then participated in a panel discussion with Nick Coveney, Property and Casualty, AIG International; Dr. Thomas Ward, Dean, College of Public and International Affairs, University of Bridgeport; and Dr. Thomas Van Cleave, Executive Director, Office of Study Abroad, University of New Haven, that covered Best Practices in International Study Abroad, Recruitment and Travel Risk Management for Higher Education.

Thursday, April 5, 2018

12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Yale University

Conference Room, 6th Floor

2 Whitney Avenue, New Haven CT - Click for map link here

For more information, or to register, please click here.

Professionals

Jonathan B. Orleans

Practice Areas

Colleges, Universities and Independent Schools

Education Law

International Study Abroad, Recruitment and Travel in Higher Education

Industries

Educational Institutions