

SEMINAR: Administrator and Director of Nursing Services Liability

April 30, 2013

Pullman & Comley Health Care attorney Randall Mathieson, Labor, Employment Law and Employee Benefits attorney Michael LaVelle and chair of the Bankruptcy Section of the firm's Litigation Department, attorney Elizabeth Austin participated in a panel discussion for the American College of Health Care Administrators.

Various topics that were discussed include:

- Overview of the HIPAA Omnibus Rule
- How to be "Responsible" Pursuant to the Responsible Corporate Officer Doctrine
- Bankruptcy and How it Affects Nursing Homes
- Human Resources & Employment Issues

Tuesday, April 30, 2013

Time: 8:00 am - 12:00 pm

Sheraton

Hartford South Hotel

Rocky Hill, CT

For more information about this seminar, please email info@pullcom.com

Professionals

Randall C. Mathieson

Practice Areas

Bankruptcy, Creditors' Rights and Financial Restructuring

Health Care

Hospitals and Health Care Institutions

Labor and Employment Counseling and Training

pullcom.com  @pullmancomley

BRIDGEPORT | HARTFORD | SPRINGFIELD | WAKEFIELD | WATERBURY | WESTPORT | WHITE PLAINS
203.330.2000 | 860.424.4300 | 413.314.6160 | 401-360-1533 | 203.573.9700 | 203.254.5000 | 914.705.5355

SEMINAR: Administrator and Director of Nursing Services Liability

Labor, Employment Law & Employee Benefits

Litigation

Physicians and Other Health Care Practitioners

Public and Private Union-Management Relations