

SEMINAR: Brownfields Technical Assistance Training for Connecticut Municipalities

August 14, 2008

Pullman & Comley Environmental Attorney Lee D. Hoffman served as an instructor in this training program that discussed the Brownfield redevelopment process, available state programs, Brownfield tools and different ways to market sites to attract developer and investor interest. The training was aimed at helping municipalities to better understand the redevelopment process from a developer perspective, with access to private and public sector experts in the Brownfield industry. The program was held on:

Thursday, August 14, 2008

Hartford, CT

This conference was presented by the National Brownfield Association.
