

Business Succession Planning

September 14, 2017

Pullman & Comley Business Organizations & Finance attorneys D. Robert Morris, who leads the practice Tax Section, and associate Keinan J. Meginniss, will be guest speakers at the Greater New England Minority Supplier Development Council's (GNEMSDC) Succession Planning Seminar on September 14, 2017 in their Bridgeport office.

Planning for the next generation of leadership in your business can be tough. This is especially true when family is involved. This seminar will discuss general succession planning for businesses, as well as some issues unique to family-owned businesses. We will talk about when you should start succession planning for your business, and discuss best practices in general strategies, solutions, and techniques to solve specific succession planning problems.
