

SEMINAR: Classify Your Employees Properly - Avoid Government Penalties and Private Litigation

May 19, 2015

Attorney Joshua A. Hawks-Ladds, chair of Pullman & Comley's Labor & Employment Law and Employee Benefits Department, conducted a seminar for the Greater New England Minority Suppliers Development Council on legal issues presented by the misclassification of employees. Topics of discussion included how to distinguish between employees and independent contractors, how to properly classify employees as exempt vs. non-exempt from overtime requirements, and how the government enforces these standards.

Tuesday, May 19, 2015
Time: 9:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
GNEMSDC Bridgeport Office
333 State Street
Bridgeport, CT 06604

For more information or to register, please contact Jennifer Little-Greer at (203) 288-9744 x111 or jlittle-greer@gnemsd.org.

Professionals

Joshua A. Hawks-Ladds

Practice Areas

Business Disputes
Construction
Labor and Employment Counseling and Training
Labor, Employment Law & Employee Benefits
Litigation
Public and Private Union-Management Relations
Real Estate Litigation

pullcom.com  @pullmancomley

BRIDGEPORT | HARTFORD | SPRINGFIELD | WAKEFIELD | WATERBURY | WESTPORT | WHITE PLAINS
203.330.2000 | 860.424.4300 | 413.314.6160 | 401-360-1533 | 203.573.9700 | 203.254.5000 | 914.705.5355