

SEMINAR: The Adaptable Lawyer: Staying Practical in Today's Complex Legal Environment

June 11, 2012

Pullman & Comley Litigation attorney David Atkins will be a speaker at the 2012 CBA Annual Meeting. The program entitled, The Adaptable Lawyer: Staying Practical in Today's Complex Legal Environment, is co-sponsored by the CNA Insurance Companies. The program's speakers will provide valuable instruction, practical guides, checklists, and risk control and ethical recommendations to help lawyers safely navigate today's complex legal environment and assist them in minimizing professional liability risk. Topics include identifying risk in business transactions, civil litigation, emerging technology, practice errors, and complying with ethical and professional obligations.

Monday, June 11, 2012

3:45 pm - 5:45 pm

Connecticut Convention Center

100 Columbus Boulevard

Hartford, CT 06103

For more information or to register for the CBA Annual Meeting, please click here.

Professionals

David P. Atkins

Practice Areas

Professional Liability