

The Case for Shared Libraries - Merging Libraries Benefits City, College, Students and Residents

November 23, 2020 | 11:00 a.m. - 11:50 a.m. EST

Event Sponsor: The Connecticut Conference of Independent Colleges

Geoffrey F. Fay, attorney in Pullman & Comley's Colleges, Universities and Independent Schools practice, will be speaking at the CCIC 2020 Virtual Conference on the case for shared libraries.

Geoff, who also practices in the firm's Real Estate department, will discuss the case of UConn, the City of Hartford, and the Hartford Public Library collaboration which brought the academic community and the public together in a combined library. The result better served the literary, cultural, and educational aspirations of the residents of the community and the university's staff and students.

There is no fee to attend, but pre-registration is required. Please register online at www.theccic.org.
