

WEBINAR: Special Connecticut Legislative Update for Property Tax Professionals

July 30, 2015

The recent Connecticut legislative session saw the adoption of major property tax measures including the regional sharing of property tax revenue, restructuring of the unpopular tax on motor vehicles and a revamping of the payment in lieu of taxes (PILOT) program. Several long-standing exemptions have been scaled back while newer ones have been expanded. Even the experiment with the land value tax has been given new life.

Please join the property tax attorneys of Pullman & Comley, LLC for a webinar designed to update property tax professionals on these measure and one mischievous bill that did not make it.
