Connecticut Law Tribune

Attorney Christopher P. McCormack, member of Pullman & Comley's Environmental practice, was mentioned in a recent Connecticut Law Tribune article entitled, "Fundamental Fairness Involves More Than Due Process." The article discussed the concept of fundamental fairness and its unique place in Connecticut's administrative law. Chris was referenced as a panelist for the environmental law section's presentation, "Ethical Considerations in Environmental Law," at the Connecticut Bar Association's 2019 Legal Conference.
