Erick A. Russell, a member of Pullman & Comley's Government Finance Department, was profiled in an article entitled "Emerging Leader Guides Next Generation" in the November 22, 2019 edition of the New Haven Independent newspaper. Russell spends a great amount of time mentoring students and young lawyers of color, assuring them that they belong in the legal world. Russell also devotes numerous hours to policy and politics. After spending two terms chairing the state bar association's LGBT section, he currently serves as vice-chair of the state Democratic Party. Russell works hard to draw a new generation into the party and is at the helm of generational change in New Haven.
