

IN THE NEWS: Brad Mondschein Leads Metro-Hartford Alliance Business Efforts with Israel

May 31, 2011
Hartford Business Journal

A Hartford Business Journal article about the MetroHartford Alliance's international recruitment strategy to focus on France, Germany, Israel and the United Kingdom noted that Pullman & Comley attorney Brad N. Mondschein is serving as chair of the Israel subcommittee.

According to the article, the four countries were chosen because they are some of the largest trading partners with Connecticut. "The goal is to move beyond a simple export-import relationship and actually get foreign companies to open their U.S. headquarters or some type of presence in Connecticut."

To read the full article on the Hartford Business Journal website, please click here.

Practice Areas

Business and Finance