

IN THE NEWS: Elizabeth Austin Comments on Union Contracts

February 25, 2013
www.courant.com

Pullman & Comley Bankruptcy attorney Elizabeth Austin was quoted in “HealthBridge Files for Bankruptcy Protection,” an article that discusses five Connecticut nursing homes that have recently filed for bankruptcy. The goal of the bankruptcy is to modify the union contracts without union consent, thereby reducing their labor costs.

According to Liz, “A bankruptcy judge will only allow union contracts to be rewritten if you prove there's no way to meet the obligations of the contract and the business will go dark.”

To read the full article please click here.

Practice Areas

Bankruptcy, Creditors' Rights and Financial Restructuring