

Patricia Beauregard Reviews Non-tax Reasons For Estate Planning

May 2012

Connecticut Bar Association Estate & Probate Newsletter

Since the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2011 (EGTRRA) many practitioners and individual estate planning clients have decided to "wait and see" what Congress will do. In the May Estates & Probate Newsletter from the Connecticut Bar Association, Trusts and Estates attorney Patricia Beauregard reviews reasons for estate planning.

According to Patti, "Estate planners have adapted to the landscape of uncertainty, and we include flexibility in our estate planning documents so that our clients do not have to change their estate plans every time the law changes."
